

LAST EDITION

LAST EDITION

GUNMAN SENTENCED TO YEAR TERM FOR SHOOTING AFFAIR

WOMAN TILLS LAND WORTH FORTUNE AN ACRE ON BROADWAY

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 151

Chicago, Thursday, March 26, 1914

ONE CENT

INSPECTOR DANNENBERG TO QUIT JOB—MORALS SQUAD UNDER FIRE

*Major Funkhouser's Chief Assistant Verifies Report of His Intended Resignation—Dannenberg's Uncle
Is Dragged Into $500 Scandal—Resort Owner
Makes Charge Against Morals Squad.*

William C. Dannenberg, morals inspector, first aid to Deputy Police Commissioner Funkhouser, is going to resign, quit his job and get out of the city service.

He was asked by a Day Book reporter today: "What is there to the rumor that you are going to quit as soon as the Harry Cullet case is finished?"

He replied: "It is true that I am going to resign some time in the near future. But my quitting has no connection with the Cullet case one way or the other. I have intended for some time to resign. In fact, when I first entered the city service I did not intend to stay permanently."

There are several things that have happened lately that are mentioned along with Dannenberg's coming resignation. Among them are:

1. The charge in Judge Hopkins' court yesterday by Mrs. Mary Mertz, 515 N. Clark st., that $500 of her money which she had placed in a drawer of a chiffonier disappeared during a raid on her flat by the Dannenberg morals squad.